

Schedule of maximum Variable Price Plan charges for non-domestic customers

Variable Price Plan (VPP) prices and terms apply to your site(s) if our fixed price product period has ended and you have not taken a different product with us and you have not left our supply.

If you do wish to take up a different product, please contact any brokers and they will offer you British Gas Plus prices as well as the current market prices.

At present, British Gas Plus does not do any direct selling.
